Hey Jeff – no problem. I know you're busy, and thanks for responding while you're on detail. I'm at a meeting all day tomorrow. Maybe we can touch base Friday morning if you're free. FYI that I'm going out for a draft 401 certification request to Colville Tribes and Washington tomorrow. This is the step before the public draft, request for final 401 cert, then issuance of the permit, so there's still time to talk about the other outfalls.

I did want to let you (and Bryan) know what's in the permit so far though, so am waiting to hear back from Bryan on a good time that works for you – maybe next week to allow for more times that might work. Thanks for getting back to me. - Jenny

Hey Jenn

Sorry I have been swamped. I will try and call tomorrow to discuss some discharge area that may need to be addressed.

Thanks
